HELP THE COOD CAUSE.

After repeatedly calling the attention of the citizens of Tonopah to the conditions existing in our graveyard, the Bonanza has at last aroused the indignation of the local business men and now steps are being taken toward remedying the eye-sore of the community. The fence surrounding the cemetery is down and it is a common thing for those visiting the grave of a loved one to find it trampled and hardly recognizable.

Committees have been appointed by the various fraternal organizations and business orders, and hurried steps are being taken toward the repairing of the graveyard. The day we decorate the resting place of our dead is close at hand, and every patriotic citizen should make of himself, or herself, a committee of one to see that the burying ground is in first-class condition by May 30. A great many may not be able to help in actual labor, but they can subscribe for tickets for the entertainment at the Butler Sunday night, half of which receipts will be donated to the committee having in charge the restoration of the city cemetery.

Make it a full house on Sunday night. You will not regret the dollar spent for admission.

The Chicago home of James A. Patten, the wheat manipulator who is being held responsible for the uncalled for raise in the price of flour and breadstuffs throughout the country has to be guarded day and night by officers to keep it from being wrecked. All of which shows that even the easily buncoed American will kick when his stomach is attacked.

SCHOOL GIRL HAS SOME VERY TRYING TIMES

BUT AS USUAL EVERYTHING WILL END HAPPILY AND SHE GETS MARRIED.

Just think. Only three more nights of the Allen Curtis Musical Comedy company at the Butler. Only three more times will we have the pleasure of watching that dainty chorus go through their various bewildering evolutions. There is a possibility of the show coming back after they finish their Goldfield engagement, but this is not sure as Mr. Curtis is somewhat anxious to take to the road again as theater managers are telegraphing him daily to come on with his bunch of fan-makers.

The attraction tonight will be "The School Girl." Doesn't that sound nice. Kind of happy like. There will be new musical numbers, new chorus stunts; in fact everything will be new and better than ever. The way the show has packed the little Main street theater is a caution, and it is a safe bet the last performance of the company will be just as crowded as the first.

BROKER MUIR BOOKED ON FOUR NEW CHARGES

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Troubles keep piling up on W. A. Muir, stock broker, who fled to Denver and, after fighting for months against extradition on a charge of felony embezzlement, was kidnapped by Detective Freely. Yesterday the three charges of felony embezzlement against him on complaint of John Auld, Henry Greer and Dr. George S. Snyder were called in Police Judge Weller's court and by consent continued until March 12, owing to the absence of Attorney R. V. Whiting, special prosecutor.

No sooner had Muir left the court room, accompanied by his wife and two friends, than he was placed under arrest by Detective Freely on four new charges and locked up in the city prison.

The new complaining witnesses are Wilhelm Blackmann of 61 North Second street, San Jose, who alleges that Muir embezzled 1000 shares of mining stock of the Jumbo Extension mine, valued at $200; Ralph Jacobs, 1700 Fillmore street, representing his father, Morris Jacobs, who alleges that Muir embezzled mining shares and coin aggregating $800; P. O. Huffaker, room 2, Ferry building, who alleges that Muir embezzled $75; and John E. Moulton, 3535 Nineteenth street, who alleges that Muir embezzled $260.

STOCK MARKET

A strong feeling invaded the San Francisco stock exchange at yesterday's session and as a consequence the southern Nevadas were nearly all credited with quite an advance. Tonopah Mining, which has been hovering around the $6.90 mark for the last ten days, advanced 10 points and closed strong at $7.00 bld. Extension was also credited with a rise of 10 cents and it closed at 64 cents bld. Montana was next in line with a gain of 7 points. Belmont went up from .95 to .97. MacNamara made the only decline of the Tonopah stocks and lost 3 cents on the day's transactions.

Goldfield Consolidated and Florence each gained 2½ points, while Fraction advanced 3 points.

LARIATS HIMSELF INTO MAYORALTY OF OMAHA

OMAHA, May 6.—Mayor James C. Dahlman and his lariat won the city election yesterday by about 4000 votes, a gain of 1000 over his vote of three years ago. John P. Breen was the Republican candidate for mayor.

During the afternoon Dahlman, on horseback, rode into the third ward and from one election booth to another. His horse was kept on the gallop and over his head the mayor swung a lariat. Now and then he would stop close to a crowd, swing the rope around his head and when he let go it would sail straight as an arrow over the head of some individual.

This was done time and again, and although it disgusted the workers on the other side, it buoyed up the Dahlmanites and made more votes for their chief.

The Democrats have elected four, and possibly six of the twelve councilmen. Although the count is progressing slowly it looks as if they have elected the city clerk, controller and building inspector, while the Republicans have saved from the wreck the city attorney and engineer.

ACCUSED OF ADULTERATING.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Warrants were obtained yesterday for the arrest of J. A. Oswald, A. Shapiro, T. G. Seaford and W. F. Kratz for selling meat adulterated with sulphites.
